

REMARKS

The subject Patent Application was filed as a Continuation of the presently pending Patent Application, Serial #08/624,259, filed 29 March 1996. Claims 1-17 filed with that Application have now been canceled from this case, and Claims 18-52 have been inserted for further prosecution.

In reviewing the papers filed with the subject Continuation Patent Application, the undersigned Attorney discovered a typographical error in referencing the parent Application, namely Application Serial #08/624,259, filed on 29 March 1996. In those papers, the parent's series code of the Serial Number was inadvertently typed "09/" rather than the "08/."

Such error - which is apparent on its face, in light of the parent Application's early filing date - has now been corrected. Appropriate incorporation of that correction is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,

Jun Y. Lee
